RESPONDENT’S RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Respondent, Integr8 Fuels Inc. (“Integr8”), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits this response to the Court’s Order to Show Cause dated December 5, 2022, Doc. # 10, and represents that on December 8, 2022, Integr8 withdrew its demand for arbitration against the Petitioner. A copy of Integr8’s withdrawal of the arbitration demand against the Petitioner is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1, a copy of which was simultaneously sent to Petitioner’s counsel.

On the basis of the withdrawal of its demand for arbitration against Petitioner, Integr8 respectfully requests that the Court deny Petitioner’s application for a preliminary and permanent injunction as moot. “A case becomes moot—and therefore no longer a ‘Case’ or ‘Controversy’ for purposes of Article III—when the issues presented are no longer ‘live’ or the parties lack a legally cognizable interest in the outcome.” Already, LLC v. Nike, Inc., 568 U.S. 85, 91, 133 S. Ct. 721, 184 L. Ed. 2d 553 (2013) (internal citation omitted). “The hallmark of a moot case or controversy is that the relief sought can no longer be given or is no longer needed.” Martin-Trigona v. Shiff, 702 F.2d 380, 386 (2d Cir. 1983).

As Integr8 has withdrawn its demand for arbitration against Petitioner, the issues presented by Petitioner’s application for injunctive relief are no longer “live.” Accordingly, Integr8 respectfully requests that the Court deny as moot Petitioner's application for preliminary and permanent injunctive relief.

December 9, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

The Respondent,
INTEGR8 FUELS INC.
